STATEMENT

The harassment to the farmers-debtors at the hands of money-lenders, resulting in the frequent suicides by the farmers is a matter of great concern. The existing enactment on money-lending, namely the Bombay Money-Lenders Act, 1946 (Bom. XXXI of 1947) is found to be too inadequate to prevent the harassment to the farmers-debtors by the money-lenders. Various Committees appointed by the State Government to study the reasons for farmers' suicides have submitted their reports, which, inter alia, point out that harassment by money-lenders is a major reason for such suicides. With a view to effectively prevent the harassment of farmers-debtors at the hands of money-lenders, it had become expedient for the Government to make a new law to regulate the transactions of money-lending in the State by repealing the existing Bombay Money-Lenders Act, 1946 (Bom. XXXI of 1947).

2. Accordingly, the Maharashtra Money-Lending (Regulation) Bill, 2010 (L. A. Bill No. XLIX of 2010) was introduced and has been passed by both Houses of the State Legislature. The said Bill was forwarded to the Union Ministry of Home Affairs being nodal Ministry for the purpose and is under consideration for the Hon'ble President's Assent. The Union Ministry of Finance (Department of Financial Services) through the Ministry of Home Affairs has made certain suggestions in respect of the definition clause of the said Bill to explicitly provide that the provisions of the said Bill shall not apply to the Non-Banking Financial Companies and the Reserve Bank of India regulated under the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, so also to the Co-operative Societies and the Co-operative Banks regulated under the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 as well as to the Regional Rural Banks regulated under the Regional Rural Banks Act, 1976. Obviously, such institutions are governed by the Central laws made under the Union List. However, as insisted by the Union Home Ministry, on the recommendation of the Union Ministry of Finance, such explicit provisions have been incorporated. It is considered expedient to bring such law into force with immediate effect by promulgating an Ordinance.

3. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that, circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to make a law, for the purposes aforesaid, this Ordinance is promulgated.

Mumbai,
Dated the 16th January 2014.

K. SANKARANARAYANAN
Governor of Maharashtra.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

RAJGOPAL DEVARA,
Secretary to Government.

STATEMENT

The Parliament has, with a view to extend the provisions of the Part IX of the Constitution, relating to Panchayats in Scheduled Areas, enacted the Provisions of the Panchayats (Extension to Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (40 of 1996) (for short referred to as "PESA"). In pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, the Maharashtra Village Panchayats Act (III of 1959) has been amended by Mah. XXVII of 2003, by inserting a separate Chapter III-A containing special provisions for Gram Sabha and Panchayat in Scheduled Areas.

2. In pursuance of PESA, it is considered expedient to ensure that any habitation or a group of habitations or a hamlet or a group of hamlets comprising a community and managing its affairs in accordance with traditions and customs may be declared as a village and on such declaration each such village shall have a Gram Sabha. This will lead to deepening of democratic decentralization and greater participation of the residents in the Scheduled Areas, in Panchayati Raj System, which at present is limited due to often remote and dispersed nature of their habitation. This will also ensure that the Gram Sabhas of such villages can participate in development by using the rights conferred upon such Gram Sabhas under the PESA. It is, therefore, is considered expedient to amend the Maharashtra Village Panchayats Act (III of 1959), for the purpose, immediately.

3. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action further to amend the Maharashtra Village Panchayats Act (III of 1959), for the purposes aforesaid, this Ordinance is promulgated.

STATEMENT

The Government of India had appointed a National Police Commission for fresh examination of the role and performance of police, both as a law enforcing agency and as an institution to protect the rights of citizens enshrined in the Constitution of India. The National Police Commission, after examining all the issues in depth, submitted various reports and the final report in the year 1981. Prakash Singh and Others had filed Writ Petition (Civil) No. 310 of 1996 against Union of India and Others in the Hon'ble Supreme Court under article 32 of the Constitution of India for seeking directions to implement the report of the National Police Commission and to ensure the police is accountable essentially and preliminarily to the law of the land and the people.

2. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, while deciding the said Writ Petition in its Judgment, dated the 22nd September 2006 (reported in (2006) 8 SCC 2), has held that it is essential to lay down guidelines to be operative till framing of the appropriate legislation. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has issued directions under article 32 read with article 142 of the Constitution of India regarding constitution of State Security Commission, Police Establishment Board, Police Complaints Authority, Separation of Investigation Police and Law and Order Police, Selection and Tenure of Director General and Inspector General of Police and Minimum Tenure of Police Officers on Operational Duties.

In pursuance of the said Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and until appropriate changes are made by law, the Government of Maharashtra issued various Government Resolutions and Notifications, from time to time.

In this backdrop, the Government of Maharashtra took a decision to appoint a Cabinet Sub-Committee to examine the issues involved and to make recommendations for necessary action. As the Cabinet Sub-Committee has recommended to amend the Maharashtra Police Act (XXII of 1951), suitably, the Government of Maharashtra, considers it expedient to amend the said Act, immediately.

3. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action further to amend the Maharashtra Police Act, for the purposes aforesaid, this Ordinance is promulgated.

Mumbai,
Dated the 1st February 2014.

K. SANKARANARAYANAN,
Governor of Maharashtra.

STATEMENT

The Maharashtra Entertainments Duty Act (I of 1923), provides for the levy and collection of entertainments duty on different types and forms of entertainments including cable television. Section 3 of the said Act inter alia provides for rates of entertainment duty payable on cable television in the State.

2. The Cable Television Network (Regulation) Act, 1995 (7 of 1995) regulates the operation of cable television networks in the country. The television transmission is being made mandatory through digital addressable system via set top box in different areas of the country in phased manner. Accordingly, in the State of Maharashtra, the cable digitalization via set top box has been made mandatory in three phases, i.e. by 31st October 2012 for Mumbai and Mumbai Suburban district, by 31st March 2013 for the cities having population more than ten lakh and by 31st December 2014 in remaining area of the State.

3. As, after digitalization via set top box, the role of Multi-System Operators and Cable Operators being vital, the Government of Maharashtra, considers it expedient to bring the Multi-System Operators and Cable Operators within the purview of the Maharashtra Entertainments Duty Act to hold them responsible for levy, recovery and payment of entertainments duty to the Government. For that purpose it is proposed to amend sections 2, 3 and 7 of the Maharashtra Entertainments Duty Act. With a view to secure better compliance, it is proposed to enhance the quantum of fine, from existing not less than rupees five hundred and not more than rupees one thousand to rupees twenty-five thousand or five times of revenue loss, whichever is higher, by amending section 5 of the said Act.

4. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action further to amend the Maharashtra Entertainments Duty Act (I of 1923), for the purposes aforesaid, this Ordinance is promulgated.

STATEMENT

The main challenge facing India's legal and judicial system is ensuring that common people in India are able to enjoy their constitutional and legislative rights to the fullest extent. The legal system should also effectively facilitate eradication of poverty as well as equitable and environmentally sustainable economic growth.

2. With this view, Government of Maharashtra is desirous of establishing National Law Universities, that shall provide legal education to prepare legal professionals who will play a decisive leadership role in meeting these challenges, not only as advocates practicing in courts, but also as legislators, judges, policy makers, public officials and civil society activists as well as legal counsels in the private sector. Legal education shall also prepare lawyers to meet the new challenges of working in a globalized knowledge economy in which the nature and organization of law and legal practice are undergoing a paradigm shift. Original and path breaking legal research is needed to create new legal knowledge and legal ideas that will help us to meet these challenges in a manner responsive to the needs of the State.

3. The vision of National Law Universities shall be to ensure delivery of justice oriented legal education to contribute to the realization of values enshrined in the Constitution of India. Legal education shall also inculcate the need to observe the highest standards of professional ethics and a spirit of public service. In order to achieve these goals legal education shall be broad based, multi-disciplinary, multi-functional and contextual.

4. As the existing laws of the State relating to higher education and universities are found to be inadequate to satisfy the above objectives, it is considered expedient to bring a new legislation.

5. The Maharashtra National Law University Bill, 2013 (L. A. Bill No. XXXIV of 2013) in this behalf has been introduced in the Monsoon Session of the State Legislature. However, the same is pending in Legislative Assembly. In respect of Academic Year 2015-16, as informed by the convener of the Common Law Admission Test (CLAT), it is necessary that the Vice-Chancellor of the university shall complete the process for Common Law Admission Test before May, 2014. The Government, therefore, considers it expedient to immediately make a law, to establish and incorporate National Law Universities in the State for the development and advancement of legal education and for the purposes of imparting specialized and systematic instruction, training and research in systems of law and for the matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

6. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that, circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action to make a law for the aforesaid purposes, this Ordinance is promulgated.

Mumbai,

Dated the 17th February 2014.

STATEMENT.

Sections 21 to 31 of the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966 (Mah. XXXVII of 1966), deal with the preparation, submission and sanction to Development plan. By the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning (Second Amendment) Act, 2010 (Mah. X of 2011), which has come into force on the 5th April 2011, the time-limits for preparation, submission and sanction to the Development plan have been revised, with a view to expediting the process therefor so as to complete the same within a period of three and half years to four years.

2. The Act provided uniform time-limits for completing the various stages of preparation, submission and sanctioning of Development plan, irrespective of whether such plan is for a small town or a Metropolitan City like Mumbai. It was noticed that the planning authorities of the bigger cities, having regard to area, rapid urbanization and the complex problems arising therefrom, were experiencing time-constraints in preparing the Development Plans and submitting them for sanctioning within the stipulated time-limits. It was also observed that, the time-limit of thirty days then obtaining in sub-section (1) of section 26 of the Act, for inviting objections and suggestions, was not adequate for big cities.

3. The work of preparation of the revised draft Development plan for Brihan Mumbai was then in progress and having regard to the above circumstances, the Planning Authority had conveyed that it may not be possible for it to publish the draft Development plan within the statutory time-limit. In the light of the above, it became necessary to urgently incorporate suitable provisions in the said Act for granting extension of the then stipulated time-limits for the bigger cities having population of ten lakh or more as per the latest census. It was also necessary to urgently incorporate provisions for removal of doubt regarding application of the amended time-limits.

4. As both Houses of the State Legislature were not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra was satisfied that circumstances existed which rendered it necessary for him to take immediate action further to amend the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966 (Mah. XXXVII of 1966), for the purposes aforesaid, the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning (Amendment) Ordinance, 2013 (Mah. Ord. XV of 2013) was promulgated by the Governor of Maharashtra on the 4th October 2013.

5. Thereafter, upon the re-assembly of the State Legislature on the 9th December 2013, at Nagpur, a Bill for converting the said Ordinance into an Act of the State Legislature was introduced in the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly, as L. A. Bill No. XXXVI of 2013, on the 11th December 2013. However, the said Bill could not be passed, as the session of the State Legislature was prorogued on the 20th December 2013. As provided by article 213 (2) (a) of the Constitution of India, the said Ordinance ceased to operate after 19th January 2014. However, the Government considers it expedient to continue the operation of the said Ordinance after incorporating therein certain further minor amendments to the said Act.

6. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action to continue the provisions of the said Ordinance, after incorporating certain minor amendments to the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966 (Mah. XXXVII of 1966), this Ordinance is promulgated.

Mumbai,
Dated the 17th February 2014.

K. SANKARANARAYANAN,
Governor of Maharashtra.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

MANUKUMAR SRIVASTAV,
Principal Secretary to Government.
